

Rev. Emily Pels has a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree and has been employed as a graphic artist, collage art instructor and an Art Director/designer for 40 years, her last position being Art Director for Virginia Wildlife Magazine for 26 years. She is now retired. Emily is an Ordained Religious Science Minister. She is serving as Secretary of ASU 2023-2024.

Emily is the owner and operator of Healing Creations, her energy healing practice in Richmond Va. She has been offering many forms of energy healing for 26 years. Her practice is now full time since her retirement. She is a Certified Healing Touch Practitioner, a RoHun Doctor/Therapist with extensive hours of training from Delphi University and Spiritual Center in Georgia, Emily's Science of Mind studies have enriched her healing practice and her life in new and wonderful ways. She enjoys offering a deeper form of spiritual counseling for her clients and also teaching the Science of Mind principles in an informal setting.